LATE TELEGRAMS.

The following telegrams are from Australian papers brought on by the Taiguan which arrived to-day :-

The postage between India and Australia will be reduced to 21d. from January next, provided Western Australia consents to the arrangement. The Queon of Madagascar refuses any longer to recognise the French protectorate.

The question is to be submitted to the consideration of an Anglo-French Conference. Ex-President | leveland denounces the McKinley Tariff Bill as iniquitous. Balfour proposes an extension of the repurchase acheme in Ireland, by the addition of thirty million to the ton million previously authorised . nder the Ashbourne Act, making a total of forty million to be sunk in the purchase of Irish land from the present landlords.

Rome, 14th Oct. - The Riforma, a semiofficial paper, a ya that it is convinced of the resumption, ere long, of the negociations for the delimitation of the frontier. London, 13th Oct .- The Daily News says that Egypt will never be able to re-take the Soudan. The most simple course would have been to allow Italy to take Kassala if she wished to do. The other papers justify Lord Salisbury's attitude in saying that England could not give away a country that did not belong to her.

The ceromony of re-consecrating St. Paul's Cathedral, in consequence of the desecration of the building by a recent suicide therein, was performed yesterday, in the presence of a large concourse, by the Rt. Rev. Dr Temple, Bishop of London. Since the repeal of the Socialist Laws in Germany a large number of Socialists have returned to the Empire. The Conservative party strongly condemns the Emperor for the active part he has taken in obtaining the recent of the Socialist laws.

The action for divorce brought by Captain O'Shen against his wife, with Mr Parnell, M.P., as co respondent, comes on in the middle of Nov. It is expected that it will last a fortnight and some very curious details are promised. Mrs (Shea is said to have had great difficulty in obtaining a prominent lawyer to take up her case. With reference to the report that the Czar, with several of his suite, was injured by the explosion of a dynamite bomb while hunting at Skiernewisco, the Pesther Lloyd, a leading Austrian newspaper, publishes a statement to the effect that Dr Heirsch threw a bomb at the Czir, and the explosion resulted in the German General, Werder, being wounded while the Czar escaped uninjured. Heirach was arrested.

The Economist, in an article published today on the Queensland separation question, states that if separation is granted Lord Knutsford must adopt measures to efficiently safeguard the existing rights of holders of Queensland bonds who are materially interested in the proposed division of the
